

Lee University MSAT

Comprehensive Master Assessment Plan

PLO 1. The program will produce students who utilize evidence-based practice to accurately and efficiently diagnose a variety of orthopedic, general medical, emergency, and psychological conditions.
SLO	Didactic Class Assessed	Clinical Course Assessed
SLO 1.1 Students will demonstrate accurate and efficient diagnostic abilities and understanding of pathophysiology through clinical evaluations, scenario-based situations, and written examinations.	510, 530, 535, 590	502, 503, 504
SLO 1.2 Students will recognize key signs and symptoms in order to evaluate, compare, and differentiate appropriate pathologies.	520, 530, 535, 590	500, 501
SLO 1.3 Students will collaborate with health care professionals to identify patients with behavioral health conditions.	580, 590	503
PLO 2. The program will produce students who utilize evidence-based practice to effectively treat and rehabilitate patients with a variety of orthopedic, general medical, emergency, and psychological conditions.
SLO 2.1 Students will develop care plans relative to patients' physical, mental, and emotional needs.	550, 570, 575, 580, 590	502, 503, 504
SLO 2.2 Students will select the most appropriate protocols and tool(s) to provide patient care.	520, 550, 570, 575, 580, 590	500, 503, 504
SLO 2.3 Students will assess patient outcomes to modify quality improvement plans.	540, 541, 560	504
PLO 3. The program will produce students who demonstrate appropriate techniques and/or procedures to prevent a variety of orthopedic and general medical conditions.
SLO 3.1 Students will be able to effectively select, fit, and remove protective equipment to minimize the risk of injury or re-injury.	510, 520	500, 501
SLO 3.2 Students will develop, implement, and assess effectiveness of strategies and protocols (i.e., nutrition, mental wellness, orthopedic) to mitigate and reduce the risk for health conditions across the lifespan.	510, 590	502
PLO 4. The program will produce students who practice in a legal and competent manner that effectively demonstrates an understanding of the different facets of healthcare administration and professional responsibility.

SLO 4.1 Students will execute oral and written communication proficiency.	520, 530, 535	501, 503, 504
SLO 4.2 Students will devise policies, procedures, and budgetary documents.	510, 560, 565	504
SLO 4.3 Students will practice health care in compliance with applicable legal and ethical guidelines.	510, 520, 541, 560	500, 503, 504
PLO 5. The program will produce students who advocate for patient values by exhibiting cultural awareness behaviors and working respectfully with diverse populations in an ethical manner reflecting the mission of Lee University.
SLO 5.1 Students will discern the role of athletic training in health care by practicing in collaboration with other health care and wellness professionals.	510, 520, 565	500, 503, 504
SLO 5.2 Students will practice cultural competency, foster cultural humility, and demonstrate respect in client/patient care.	580	502, 503, 504