Immigration Regulations

The United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is a part of the United States Department of Homeland Security. The USCIS is responsible for enforcing the U.S. immigration law and regulations. While you are in the United States as a nonimmigrant, there are certain regulations of which you must be aware. The information presented here will help you understand these regulations and enable you to maintain your legal status.

The international admissions advisor does not work for the USCIS; she works for the university. As a university employee she will be your liaison with USCIS.

All visa and immigration questions should be directed to Elle Lancaster at elancaster@leeuniversity.edu or 423-614-6068.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS WITH WHICH YOU SHOULD BE FAMILIAR

Passport

Passports should be kept valid for at least six months into the future. Your passport can be renewed by an official of your home country consulate in the United States.

U.S. Visa

Stamped in the passport booklet by a U.S. Consular officer abroad, the visa indicates the period during which a visitor may enter the United States and the number of entries permitted. The stamp may only be obtained outside the U.S. The date on the visa stamp does not govern the length of time the visitor may remain in the U.S. after entering.

Form I-94

U.S. Customs and Border Patrol maintains records of the student's arrival and departure. The form I-94 can be printed through the CBP website at www.cbp.gov.

Form I-20

When a student has been admitted to a college or university in the U.S., a form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility) is issued. The student presents the Form I-20 to the U.S. Consular Office to obtain an F-1 visa. The I-20 must be signed by Elle Lancaster, Lee's Designated School Official, before the student exits the U.S. in order for re-entry to be permitted. This form should not be surrendered when leaving the U.S. for a temporary absence.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Costs

Before admission can be granted, an applicant must provide proof of sufficient funds for the first twelve months of enrollment. The required amount for the current school year is:

	Per Semester	Per Academic Year
Maintenance Fees and Tuition	$12,465	$24,930
Books, Supplies, etc.	$ 670	$1,340
Meals	$2,580	$5,160

Transportation/Personal	$2,140	$4,280
	Total Budget
	$20,500	$41,000

Note: This is a relatively conservative estimate for a student who budgets carefully and will be sharing living quarters with another student. These amounts do not take into account such expenses as recreation, telephone services, local travel, personal items, or automobile expenses.

Deferred Payment Plan

There is a $100 fee for this service. Any full-time, on-campus student desiring to participate in the university deferred payment plan is required to pay a $8,973 downpayment at registration and the balance of the semester charges in two equal payments as follows:

Fall Semester

First Payment by September 30

Second Payment by October 31

Spring Semester

First Payment by February 28

Second Payment by March 31

Housing

Lee University is primarily a residential campus. All single, nonresident undergraduate students are required to live in university residence halls. A $200 deposit is required to reserve a room. Room assignments are made based on date of receipt of housing deposit. Graduate students are not required to live on campus, but must submit an off-campus application.

Full Course of Study

Immigration regulations require students in F-1 status to complete a full course of study during each fall and spring semester. Students are not required to register for classes during the summer session. A full course of study for an undergraduate student is at least 12 semester hours. All students must complete general education core classes including Religion.

The I-20 form must be signed by a Designated School Official prior to departure. This should be done at least one week before travel.

Immigration regulations prohibit off-campus employment of any kind. There are certain occasions when this work may be authorized. Students must communicate with the DSO if interested. F-1 students are allowed to work up to twenty hours per week in an on-campus job.

Practical Training

Work experience related to your course of study may be authorized under certain conditions. This must be approved by the Designated School Official and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

An International Student is in violation of status if they are not enrolled full-time each semester, if they fail to obtain an extension of stay (if required), if they do not receive permission to transfer to schools, or if they work off-campus without authorization.
