

IV. DESIRED STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

As Lee's mission statement indicates, "The foundational purpose of all educational programs is to develop within the students knowledge, appreciation, understanding, ability and skills which will prepare them for responsible Christian living in a complex world." Lee's core competencies call for "the integration of faith and vocation through the practice of ethical action, redemptive service, and responsible citizenship in the church, the community, and the world." The primary goal of Lee University's QEP is to create pathways which will facilitate students' integration of faith and vocation across the curriculum in order to achieve the missional purpose of responsible Christian living.

QEP OVERALL STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME

As a result of their study of the general core and major programs at Lee University, students will be able to demonstrate the integration of Christian faith and vocation through the practice of ethical action, redemptive service, and responsible citizenship in the church, the community and the world.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME FOR PROJECT 1

As a result of their participation in the linked courses LEEU 101, LEEU 102A and LEEU 102B, students will be able to articulate their awareness and understanding of the institution's core values.

Sub-outcomes for Project 1

- 1) Students will recognize and define the core values of the institution.
- 2) Students will demonstrate the ability to make connections between the core values of faith and vocation and their expression in ethical action, redemptive service, and responsible citizenship.
- 3) Students will reflect on how these connections relate/contribute to the integration of faith and vocation.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME FOR PROJECT 2

---

As a result of their study in their majors, students will be able to connect ethical action, redemptive service and responsible citizenship with academic knowledge through pedagogies such as service learning, global perspectives, internships and research.

Sub-outcomes for Project 2

- 1) Students will demonstrate the ability to make connections between academic knowledge in their degree major and these experiential learning opportunities.
- 2) Students will reflect on how these connections relate/ contribute to the integration of faith and vocation.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOME FOR PROJECT 3

---

As a result of their experiences in the Lee University general education core and major programs of study, students will be able to demonstrate an understanding of the integration of Christian faith and vocation through the practice of ethical action, redemptive service, and responsible citizenship in the church, the community and the world.

Sub-outcomes for Project 3

- 1) Students will synthesize academic knowledge and experiential learning with faith and vocation.
- 2) Students will evaluate the implications of their college experience, both academic and co-curricular, for their future practice of the integration of faith and vocation.
